NAME AND LOCATION.

THE Genevan Presbyterian Church was organized by the Presbytery of Naſsau, June 12, 1856, under the name of the Greene Avenue Presbyterian Church, and so continued until June, A. D., 1864, when its place of worſhip was removed from Greene Avenue, corner of Clermont Avenue, to its present place, Gates Avenue, corner of Hunter Street, where the Church edifice was completed and dedicated, June 19, 1864, and at the requeſt of the Church, and by order of Presbytery, the title was changed to the name of "The Genevan Presbyterian Church, of Gates Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y."

A CONFESSION OF FAITH.

[TO BE USED ON RECEPTION OF MEMBERS.]

I.

YOU believe in the one only living and true God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; who is a Spirit, infinite, eternal, and unchangeable in His being, power, knowledge, presence, wisdom, holiness, justness, goodness and truth; that it is the duty of all His intelligent creatures to serve and to worship Him in spirit and in truth; that He created all things; that He preserves and governs all His creatures, and overrules all their actions for His own Glory; and that in whatsoever comes to pass, He is accomplishing His eternal purposes, according to the counsel of His own will, in such a way that man is a free agent and accountable for all his actions.

II.

You believe that God created man upright; that our first parents freely sinned and fell, and that all mankind in a state of nature, and before regeneration by the Spirit of God, are dead in trespasses and sins, without holiness and true love to God, and are justly exposed to all the miseries of this life and to the pains of hell forever.

III.

You believe that God in his mercy has not left all mankind to perish forever, but out of His mere good pleasure, has, from all eternity, elected some to everlasting life; and that He has covenanted to deliver them from sin and misery, and to bring them into a state of salvation by a Redeemer.

IV.

You believe that the only Redeemer of men is the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the very God and very man; that taking upon him our nature, He freely suffered and died on the cross, making atonement for sinners; that He arose from the dead and ascended into Heaven, where He ever liveth to make intercession for His people: that "there is none other name under Heaven given among men whereby we must be saved," and that all of mature years, who are saved, are justified through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

V.

You believe that without a change of heart wrought in the unregenerate, by the special agency of the Holy Spirit, who is very God, no one can be an heir of eternal life, and that the soul which is once made partaker of renewing and saving grace, will never be permitted so to fall away as finally to perish.

VI.

You believe that adoption, repentance, justification, sanctification and perseverance, are not bestowed as the reward of any merit in him who receives them, but all flow from the free and unmerited Grace of God.

VII.

You believe that there will be a resurrection of the righteous and the wicked, and that all the righteous will be admitted to everlasting happiness, and all the wicked sentenced to misery without end.

VIII.

You believe that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are the Sacraments of the New Testament, and that Baptism is to be administered to adults upon their public confession of faith in Christ, and to the children of visible believers.

IX.

You believe that the scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are given by inspiration of God, and are the sufficient and only rule of faith and practice.

Thus you sincerely profess and believe.

COVENANT.

Dearly beloved in the Lord:

YOU have appeared before the session of this Church, and have given to them satisfactory evidence of your new creation in Christ Jesus. You have confessed your faith in Him; and in His most holy word, as revealed in the Bible, and as interpreted by the standards of this Church, to which you have been received, as members of the same, and to all of whose visible privileges you have been declared entitled.

You do now, in the presence of God, and of this assembly, and, as you hope, with sincerity, dedicate yourselves to God in Christ Jesus, humbly confessing and repenting of your sins. You do publicly acknowledge and choose the only living and true God, to be your God; the Lord Jesus, your Redeemer; and the Holy Spirit, your sanctifier.

You do covenant and promise that by the strength of Divine Grace, you will make it your endeavor to deny all ungodliness and worldly lusts, and to live soberly, righteously and godly, in this present world, hoping that you have a love of benevolence toward all mankind, and intending to do good as you have opportunity, especially to those of the household of faith.

You do also covenant with this particular branch of the Church of Christ, that so long as you continue members of the same, you will walk with it in Christian fellowship, and in a due attendance with us on all the institutions of Christ.

Thus, in the presence of God, you solemnly covenant and promise.

[Upon the assent of the new Members, here expressed by bowing the head, the Church rises, while, in their name and behalf, the Pastor says:]

We then as witnesses of these professions and promises on your part, do affectionately welcome you as duly received members of this Church, and of the Church-elect throughout all the world.

We welcome you to this fellowship with us in the blessings of the Gospel; and on our part engage, according to the opportunity and ability given unto us, to treat you with Christian affection, watch over you with tenderness, and seek your edification in Christ, so long as you shall continue among us. And may God enable us to be mutually faithful to this solemn covenant, through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom be glory forever. AMEN.

COVENANT.

[AT THE BAPTISM OF CHILDREN.]

AS MEMBERS of the Church of Christ, believing the Abrahamic Covenant, in which God says: "I will be a God to you, and to your seed after you; the promise is to you, and to your children;" and in the inspired declaration: "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house;" professing faith in all the doctrines of God's word; and recognizing His right to you and all you have; you do now present yourselves before the Lord, to dedicate this child to God in the ordinance of Baptism. Looking upon this child as an immortal being, standing in need of the atoning and regenerating grace of God, you engage to make the salvation of its soul an object of the deepest interest.

You will seek for it first, the kingdom of God, and His righteousness.

To this end your promise to teach this child to read the word of God, to instruct it in the principles of our holy religion, as revealed in the scriptures of the Old and New Testament; to pray for it; to set an example of piety and godliness before it; and conscientiously endeavor by all the means of divine appointment, to bring up this child in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

You also engage, both by precept and example, to restrain this child from those scenes or employments which are injurious to the soul; and you promise to pursue that course of Christian instruction and discipline, which your conscience, and the word of God, assure you, are best adapted to awaken a just conception of eternal realities, and to bring this child to an early and saving acquaintance with the Lord Jesus Christ, and prepare it for an endless career of holiness and happiness.

Relying upon the sufficiency of Divine Grace to make you faithful, and to crown your efforts with success, these things you solemnly promise, in the presence of The Omniscient God, and this Church, to perform.

VIII.

The teachers shall be required to visit the sick and the absent of their classes, and those who may be in want, and to report all such cases to the Superintendent, that they may receive the needed attention.
